HAMILTON — The driver of a Jeep Cherokee that slammed into a tree on the Colgate University campus in Hamilton last November, killing four people, has been indicted by a Madison County grand jury on 22 felony and women were walking along the road going back to Almeter's dormitory when Koester picked them up.

The crash occurred on Oak Drive, a narrow road only a short distance from where the women got into the Jeep.

The road leads across campus from the Village of Hamilton's main street, Broad
